

Miss Rockefeller to Make Debut at Evening Party

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr.'s, Daughter to Come Out Nov. 22.

Miss Abby Rockefeller will be introduced to society Wednesday evening, November 22, by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr. The party planned for her debut will be a musicale in the Rockefeller home, 10 West Fifth Avenue. Invitations were issued yesterday. The guests will include many of the other young women of New York society who are being introduced this winter.

Miss Rockefeller is the only daughter of her large family circle this season. Her cousin, Miss Isabel Rockefeller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Rockefeller and granddaughter of the late William Rockefeller, made her debut last winter and has since held a place in the foreground of society in New York as well as in the summer colony at Greenwich, Conn.

A year ago Miss Rockefeller was taken from school to accompany her parents on their trip to China, which Mr. Rockefeller took in connection with the Rockefeller Foundation's medical work in China. Last winter she was instructed by private tutors and passed the summer with her parents at their summer home at Seal Harbor, Me.

Miss Rockefeller is the only daughter and the oldest of the six children of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr. and Miss Adele Ryan. Her brothers are Nelson Winthrop, Lawrence, David and John D. Rockefeller 3d. She is a granddaughter of Mr. John D. Rockefeller and the late Miss Adele Ryan, Senator Nelson Winthrop, Rhode Island. One of her uncles is Mr. Winthrop W. Aldrich, who married Miss Harriet Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander.

MRS. TILFORD WINS CUP WITH CHRYSANTHEMUMS

Mrs. Lewis Also Takes Prizes at Tarrytown Show.

Special Dispatch to The New York Herald.—TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Nov. 1.—The feature of the twenty-fourth annual flower show of the Tarrytown Horticultural Society, which opened in Music Hall today, and will continue until Friday, is the display of chrysanthemums. For the best vase of decorative chrysanthemums, Mrs. William P. McCord's special silver cup went to Mrs. Henry M. Tilford of Tarrytown. Mrs. William P. McCord's Thompson's silver cup for the best twenty chrysanthemums of five varieties was won by Mrs. Frederick E. Lewis of Ridgefield, Conn.

Mrs. Lewis's silver cup for the best group of palms and foliage went to Col. Thompson of Yonkers. Mrs. John D. Rockefeller was not very successful in winning first prize this year, but he did get the first prize for his display of begonias. To-morrow morning the display of chrysanthemums, one for the silver cup offered by Mr. Stuyvesant Fish of Garrison for the best decorated table, and the other a silver cup offered by Mr. James Speyer of Scarborough for the best display of twenty-five Ward carnations for decorative effect.

Kaiser's Daughter and Pastor Arrive for His Wedding

Rumor Princess Hermine Is Stopping at Doorn Castle Until Saturday.

DOORN, Holland, Nov. 1 (Associated Press).—The Duchess of Brunswick, daughter of former Emperor William, arrived in Doorn this evening, accompanied by Pastor Vogel of Potsdam, who is to perform the religious ceremony when Princess Hermine of Reuss and William are married.

Count von Moltke, who is "marshall" of William's tiny court, refused to-day to give any information regarding the arrangements. George Sylvester Viereck, a German-American publicist, arrived here a few days ago and dined with William at the former Emperor's special invitation. The Dutch authorities are as secretive as the members of William's entourage.

Among rumors impossible to verify is one that Princess Hermine has never left Doorn castle since her arrival, and will only leave for the sale of apartments next Saturday, returning on Sunday for the wedding. Former Crown Prince Frederick William will arrive here to-morrow at noon.

The former Emperor distributes his orders for the day in the morning, and insists on their being carried out to the letter. The work imposed by him has been exceedingly heavy day and night, and the castle staff is worn out.

POTS DAM, Germany, Nov. 1 (Associated Press).—It appears that the property deed to be signed on the occasion of the marriage of the ex-Kaiser will provide for a strict division of property between him and his bride, and that William's children will not be beneficiaries under the apportionment connected with his marriage.

Princess Hermine's wedding dress has been ordered from a leading Berlin establishment, this being the first "imperial" trousseau prepared in Berlin, it is said, since the marriage of the Duchess of Brunswick in 1913. It is described as being of mauve chiffon and satin, lavishly decorated with rhinestones and steel beads. Many of the ex-Kaiser because this choice was always worn by the late Emperor, who was married in 1892.
